

Sinclair's airing of the anti Kerry film should be a slap in the face to the FCC. The total lack of ethics and lack of respect for our Democracy is appalling. This is the most obvious evidence as to why the consolidation of our media outlets is a bad idea. It's time for the FCC to have the courage to stand up for our Democracy and insist that Sinclair serve all the public.

Thank You

James P, Barber